

Write a letter for Luton Foodbank

Luton Foodbank helps people who can't afford enough food.

Luton Foodbank can buy the food because kind people give them money.

This year, Luton Foodbank needs even more money. Can you guess why?

Please write a letter home, telling the people you live with all about Luton Foodbank. The next page is an empty letter for you to finish. You can describe what Luton Foodbank does, and all the reasons you think people might not be able to afford food. Your teacher can tell you the special places to write your address and the date.

You can tell them what Luton Foodbank does, and why people need help. If you like, you can also ask for some money to bring to school for Luton Foodbank.
